Called to Share Bread of Life

Holy Week, the heart of the liturgical year, invites us to journey with Christ through his Passion, Death and Resurrection. As we witness the Last Supper and Jesus' gift of the Eucharist, we are reminded of our call to be bread broken for others. Let us draw strength from the Bread of Life and dedicate ourselves to serving our sisters and brothers who bear heavy crosses, bringing hope and resurrection to the world. The Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

On Monday, at 5:30 PM, we will have our Lenten Reconciliation Service. The Church, in her wisdom, obliges us to confess our sins at least once a year. However, if we truly wish to grow in the spiritual life and maintain the health of our souls, we would do well to make confession a regular part of our routine — at least once during Advent and once during Lent. I hope you will be able to make it.

Pope Francis of happy memory reminded us that going to confession is not to be viewed as entering a torture chamber. Rather, it is entering into a moment of grace — a sacred encounter with one of the Church's representatives, a priest, to whom we confess our sins, receive words of encouragement, and most especially hear the words of forgiveness that come from Jesus Christ Himself.

I can think of no better way to prepare for Easter than by making a good confession before that holy day arrives.

And please remember the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Thursday evening at 5:30 PM and our Good Friday Service on Friday at 12 Noon. The Easter Vigil Mass starts at 8 PM and our Easter Sunday Mass is at 10 AM.

Holy Week blessings to each of you.

Fr. Vic
