To inspire in each other a longing for holiness, conversion, and an openness to Jesus' call: "Follow Me;" by giving ourselves entirely to Christ through Mary, our Mother, in prayer, the Divine Liturgy, the Eucharist, and His Mercy in the Sacraments.

The celebration of Our Lord's Resurrection continues for 8 days known as the Easter Octave. The Octave begins on Easter Sunday and ends on the second Sunday of Easter which was declared Divine Mercy Sunday by St Pope John Paul II in 2000. St JP II often reminded the Church that the "Divine Mercy is the 'Easter gift that the Church receives from the risen Christ and offers to humanity'".

The tradition of celebrations lasting 8 days is deeply rooted in the Old Testament; one of the most significant examples being the feast of Passover. It is only fitting that we as Catholics celebrate the Ultimate Passover, the death and resurrection of the perfect "Passover Lamb", Jesus Christ whose selfless sacrifice has offered us eternal redemption.

Each day of the Easter Octave is considered a Solemnity, the highest ranking of liturgical feasts. Both Christmas and Easter are celebrated with an octave. Throughout the Easter Octave, the Gospel readings reflect on the many appearances of the Risen Messiah. Along with these special Gospel readings, the Gospel Acclamation each day of the Octave is "This is the day the Lord has made, let us be glad and rejoice in it".

The Catholic Diocese of Memphis states that "God's love was revealed and actualized as mercy" We see this truth on the Cross. We see this in the road to Calvary, the death and resurrection of Christ. As we go about celebrating these joyful 8 days of solemnity, we should continue to reflect on the Lord's mercy. Psalm 118 states that we must "give thanks to the Lord for he is good; His mercy endures forever". Be glad, be thankful, and rejoice for the Lord is Risen! Happy Easter!
