Happy Easter!

As our CRS Rice Bowl journey comes to an end, may the Eucharist continue to transform our lives and help us respond to God's call to serve our global family. Let us commit to sharing the joy of the Resurrection with people in our local community and around the world. Don't forget to turn in your CRS Rice Bowl at Sacred Heart on April or donate online at crsricebowl.org/give.

On the weekend of April 11th and 12th, the large, colorful basket will be on the altar for your Rice Bowls. Thank you so much for supporting our neighbors near and far. The impact of your donation is truly profound.

A message from the Office of Vocations:

Following the Vision, Value and Mission of Vocations within the Catholic Church:

“He is not here; for He has risen.” (Matthew 28:6)

Christ's resurrection opens the way to new life and hope for all who follow Him. Through priesthood and consecrated life, men and women share in this victory over sin and death, bringing the joy of the Risen Lord to others through prayer and service. Could God be calling you to proclaim the hope of Easter in your life and vocation? Talk to your priest or reach out to the Office of Vocations, Fr. Ratuiste 509-313-7100 or contact;

Immaculate Heart Retreat Center

Divine Mercy Retreat

April 10, 2026, 6:00pm - April 12, 2026, 1:00pm
Father Wade Menezes, CPM

What, exactly, is sin? Mortal sin? Venial sin? How does it affect our lives? What entails authentic conversion? As Christians, we are called to pursue a life of virtue as opposed to vice. With this Parish Mission series, we will learn that the message of Divine Mercy is intimately linked to the desire of one striving to become the “best version of self” with God’s grace and of one pursuing a life of holiness, each one according to his or her own vocation and state-in-life – whether single, married, widowed, or as a consecrated priest, brother, or sister.

Individuals: $250 (Includes lodging and up to 5 meals)

The Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

A very warm welcome to each of you this Easter Sunday morning! As we gather together, we rejoice in the culmination of our Lenten journey; the glorious season of Easter is now upon us! This day stands as the greatest of all feasts in our Church, celebrating the miraculous resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ from the dead.

It is essential for us to reflect on the depth of our faith; our beliefs are our guiding light, and today, we affirm that Jesus has triumphed over death. We pray: “Lord, grant us a deep gift of faith as we come together to worship You this morning, opening our hearts to the joy and hope that Your resurrection brings.”

Today is indeed a day of joy! Please spend the afternoon and evening in a way that inspires you—whether it be with family, friends, or in quiet reflection. May this time be life-giving and filled with the love that Christ has bestowed upon us all.

As we celebrate, we especially remember our little ones! I hope the children enjoy the Easter egg hunt planned after Mass. It’s a delightful tradition that brings smiles and laughter, especially after a season of Lenten sacrifices.

God’s abundant blessings to you and your loved ones on this holy day! May the joy of the Resurrection fill your hearts now and always.

In Christ's love,
Fr. Vic

Humanity & Holiness: Portraits of the Popes

Matthew Sewell, creator & host of the podcast, Popecast, will share insightful and relatable stories about how the popes grew in their relationship with God and found themselves living out the call of being successors of Peter. Fr. Kyle Ratuiste, Director of Vocations, will unpack how the stories and lessons of the popes can help us and the next generation live out our own God-given purpose.
