The Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

Alleluia! We are in the beginning stages of the Easter season, and what a joyful time it is! The Church reminds us that Easter is not just a day, but a season of celebration that lasts for 50 days—from Easter Sunday all the way to Pentecost. This extended season invites us to enter more deeply into the mystery of Christ's resurrection and its meaning for our lives.

For the first 40 days, we walk with the disciples as they encounter the risen Lord in surprising ways, leading up to the great feast of the Ascension, when Jesus is taken up to heaven. Ten days later, we reach the pinnacle of the season: Pentecost, the day the Holy Spirit comes down, filling the disciples with courage and setting their hearts on fire to share the Good News with the world.

Throughout these weeks, Sacred Scripture, especially the Gospels, offers us rich insights into God's love, forgiveness, and the promise of new life. We hear stories of hope, transformation, and the power of the Holy Spirit working in unexpected places and people. Each reading is an invitation to let our hearts be touched and our lives renewed.

One of my favorite stories from this season is this weekend's Gospel account of the Road to Emmaus. Two disciples, weighed down by sadness and confusion after Jesus' death, walk together, sharing their questions and disappointments. Suddenly, the risen Jesus joins them and opens the Scriptures, explaining how all pointed to him.

I like to think of this beautiful story as the first Bible study! Jesus himself takes the time to listen, to teach, and to reveal God's Word in a way that brings light and hope. This scene is a powerful reminder that whenever we gather to read and reflect on Scripture—at Mass, on our own, with our families, or in small groups—Jesus is present with us.

Do spend time with the Gospels this Easter Season and allow God's Word to enlighten your mind and guide your steps.

In Christ,
Fr. Vic
