To inspire in each other a longing for holiness, conversion, and an openness to Jesus' call: "Follow Me;" by giving ourselves entirely to Christ through Mary, our Mother, in prayer, the Divine Liturgy, the Eucharist, and His Mercy in the Sacraments.

MASS INTENTION

Matt Truitt

Pentecost Sunday

THE HOLY SPIRIT, THE ADVOCATE

"Today's readings recount the unforgettable events of Pentecost. Language is our primary mode of communication. How wonderful, therefore, that the principle gift of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost is tongues – speech, language – enabling the first disciples to establish heart-to-heart communication with the peoples of the world. The Holy Spirit himself is nothing but communication for the Spirit is nothing other than the love that connects the Father and the Son." - Bishop Barron's short reflection on Pentecost.

Through our Baptism, we are given the Gifts of the Holy Spirit; wisdom, counsel, understanding, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord. I encourage us all to reflect on these seven gifts and recognize which of the gifts occur naturally to you, and which of the gifts we may need to invoke the Holy Spirit and invite Him to strengthen in our lives so that we may proclaim the Gospel well.
