Dear Members of St. Charles Borromeo Parish,

I'm grateful and humbled that Bishop Daly assigned me to be your parish administrator. As a diocesan priest, my first love is parish ministry, and I have delighted in being involved with Catholic schools! However, the very title parish administrator raises some questions, so I want to address that right away.

When new priest assignments came out, I was listed as "Parish Administrator" rather than "Pastor." Does this mean that I'm only filling in until another priest can be at St. Charles more permanently? As a parish administrator, am I somehow limited in my ability to provide leadership and pastoral care in the parish? The short answer to both questions is "no."

The Diocese of Spokane has observed the practice of appointing priests as parish administrators before they are made first-time pastors. I have held several positions in my eleven years as a priest: parochial vicar in Walla Walla (two years), parochial vicar at our Cathedral (five years), Director of Vocations (since 2019 and still going), and Vice Rector at Bishop White Seminary (four years). One position I have not held yet is that of pastor. Therefore, since Bishop Daly is entrusting the full pastoral care and governance of a parish to me for the first time, he is first appointing me as parish administrator. Then, assuming all goes well, I anticipate being appointed pastor after my first year in the parish. In fact, this is what happened with Fr. Soler when he arrived at St. Charles as a highly experienced missionary priest but receiving the care of a parish in the Diocese of Spokane for the first time: Bishop Daly appointed him as parish administrator for one year; he then made Fr. Soler pastor the following year; and Fr. Soler went on to serve a full term as pastor.

Therefore, I plan on pouring myself out as fully as possible to lead and serve the people of the parish. As of this weekend, I have moved into the St. Charles rectory, and I intend to unpack my boxes to settle in for the long term. Practically speaking, I'm not going to correct you if you refer to me as your "pastor" rather than "parish administrator." The point is that I am now your priest, and I thank God for sending me to you. Let us keep each other in prayer.

St. Charles Borromeo, pray for us!

In Christ,

Fr. Ratuiste
