The Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus reminds us that to truly follow Him, we must love Him above all things - even above our closest and most cherished relationships. This is not a call to love less, but to love rightly - placing God at the center so that all our other loves flow from that wellspring of grace.

We see this kind of ordered, sacrificial love lived out in the lives of those who serve faithfully among us. This weekend, we have the great joy of honoring two such servants. On Saturday, we honor Ann Horobiowski and the many ways she has given of herself for this community through music. On Sunday, we honor Deacon Brian Ernst for his dedicated diaconal service and the example of presence he offers us week after week.

To honor them is itself an act of thanksgiving to God - for it is He who stirs up these gifts in His people. As Jesus says, "Whoever receives you receives me." When we recognize those who serve in His name, we recognize Him.

Please join us after Mass to offer your gratitude.

Fr. Vic
