Saint Mary Magdalene

Feast Day ~ July 22

Saint Mary Magdalene was known as the "Apostle to the Apostles," she was the first to encounter the risen Christ after His crucifixion and was entrusted with proclaiming the news of the Resurrection to the disciples. She is remembered for her unwavering love and devotion to Jesus. She is the patron saint of converts, repentant sinners, and many others who seek spiritual renewal. Let us honor her example of faith, courage, and transformation.

SEMINARIAN FORMATION APPEAL

2026

Support Our Seminarians

In recent years, the Spokane Diocese has been blessed to see a steady increase in vocations. Currently, our diocese supports 19 seminarians studying either at Bishop White or other seminaries in the US. These young men, who have dedicated their lives to serving Christ and His Church, embark upon a 7–9-year period of formation and education to prepare them to serve as your priests. Costs associated with their education continue to rise, now averaging $400,000 per seminarian. Please consider giving generously to this year's Seminarian Formation Appeal and continue to pray for our seminarians.

Donations can be made by visiting the diocesan website at www.dioceseofspokane.org/sfa.

The Organ Music in Today's Liturgy

"See, I have God for my help. The Lord sustains my soul..."

"The Spirit comes to the aid of our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes with inexpressible groanings."

Today's prelude has a restless pathos which can be seen as representing our own spiritual helplessness, as expressed in the above quotes from today's Introit and Epistle. Written in a trio texture (three independent voices), the two upper voices imitate one another while searching for a point of repose (the musical term is cadence), while the lowest voice plays a musical trope known as a lament bass. The composer is Hermann Schroeder (1904-1984). The postlude, by another Germanic composer—Georg Böhm (1661-1733)—is a fugal setting of the chorale Allein Gott, in der Höh sei her, which echoes the themes in today's Old Testament reading and Responsorial Psalm. For more information, ask our music director, Heather Fuller-Johnson, or our organist, Joseph Schubert.
