Sunday Reflection

Brothers and Sisters in Christ

Last week, Saint Peter was happily recognized by Jesus as the “rock” upon which the Church would be built after he correctly responded to Jesus’s question of “Who do you say that I am” and told Jesus that he is the Christ, the son of the living God. Jesus goes on to say that he will be given the keys to the Kingdom of heaven, Jesus says to Peter and to his disciples regarding Church discipline, whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven, meaning we are accountable for our actions both in word and deed.

We are called to be Christ like. Living a Christ-like life requires us to align our daily choices with the will of God and not our will because our earthly actions carry eternal weight. Ask yourself daily, did my choices I made carry external weight or did I focus only on earthly comforts? This week’s Gospel, Jesus clarifies as to what is truly means to be Christ-like by telling us, “Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me” and as I have mentioned before this is not easy and we constantly at times face challenges and are presented obstacles that try and prevent us from following Christ as he desires. We all have crosses that we carry, and by choosing to embrace them and ask Jesus for strength to carry them we are transforming our challenges into moments of grace and allow ourselves to grow deeper in our faith and allow Jesus and his great love for us to guide us on our daily paths. Trust in Jesus!!!! The cross is the only path to the Resurrection.

Jesus is urging us to offer our bodies as a living sacrifice holy and pleasing to God, which is our spiritual worship, do not conform yourselves to this world yet be transformed. Refuse the temptation to conform to the culture selfishness, instead constantly renew your minds towards God so that you can discern his will, which we know is good and pleasing and perfect. Christ reminds us that our value is found in how much we love and how much we give of ourselves.

Ultimately, true discipleship hinges on our willingness to follow Christ through everything good and bad. By rejecting conformity and seeking God’s will above all else, we successfully align our daily lives with his perfect enduring plan.

Let us pray today for the grace to think not as human’s beings do, but as God does. May we receive the courage to take up our daily crosses, trust in His plan, and follow him into everlasting life.

“The world is a sea, but the cross is our ship. If you do not wish to sink, keep your hold on the cross. Do not let yourself be swept away by the current of this world, but remain steadfast in Christ”

--Saint Augustine
