To inspire in each other a longing for holiness, conversion, and an openness to Jesus' call: "Follow Me;" by giving ourselves entirely to Christ through Mary, our Mother, in prayer, the Divine Liturgy, the Eucharist, and His Mercy in the Sacraments.

22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Friends, in today's Gospel, Jesus lays down the conditions of discipleship.

A few verses before our reading, Jesus predicted his Passion for the first time. He will sacrifice himself in love for the other—and in this, he will come to deeper life and become a source of life to others. Ronald Knox talked about the sign of the cross this way: the first two gestures form the letter "I," and the next two cross it out. That's what the cross of Jesus meant and means.

In this scene, he gathers the crowd with his disciples and pronounces the formula for following him. We ought to be listening too with great attention: "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me." The path of discipleship is the path of self-sacrificing love, and that means the path of suffering. Then the great paradox: "For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and that of the Gospel will save it." Put that over your door, on the refrigerator, on your screensaver. There is no better one-line guide to the happy life.

Bishop Robert Barron - Gospel Reflections 6th wk of OT

ACTS 2:42 : DISCIPLESHIP

"They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of the bread and to prayer. "

These are the four pillars of discipleship, modeled to us by the disciples of Jesus. Those that followed him intimately and directly.

Devoting ourselves to the teachings of the Apostles - Living by the core Christian truths and moral patterns passed down by the apostles.

Fellowship - we are created for relationship. With God, and with one another in deep spiritual partnerships.

The Breaking of the Bread - The Mass, celebrating the Lord's Supper so that together, we become one with Christ.

Prayer - this is simply acting upon a relationship with God. It is the raising of one's mind and heart to God. It's the expressing of our thoughts, gratitude, requests, and devotion through conversation with the Lord.

"FOLLOW ME"

AN INVITATION TO SERVE IN LITURGICAL MINISTRY

Our parish community is blessed by the many people who generously share their time and gifts in service to our liturgies. We are currently inviting new volunteers to consider becoming part of our liturgical ministries by serving as Lectors, Extraordinary Ministers, and/or Homebound Ministers.

Whether you are already familiar with liturgical ministry or have never served before, we welcome you to prayerfully consider how you might contribute. There are several ministries in which you can serve, each offering a meaningful way to help our parish celebrate the Liturgy together.

Your presence and service can make a beautiful difference in the life of our parish.

If you feel called to serve, or would simply like to learn more about the opportunities available, please Stefany (see email on first page of bulletin). We would be happy to welcome you and help you find a liturgical ministry that is a good fit for your gifts and interests.

Thank you for prayerfully considering this invitation and for all the ways you help make our parish a vibrant community of faith.

AROUND THE DIOCESE

High School Girl's Retreat - "Made For This"
A retreat for girls ages 14-18.

'In an age of confusion and blurred lines, women are being erased. The reality is that we were created to nourish, form, love, and forgive because of our God-given receptivity. By understanding who we are as women, and the unique call God has given us by virtue of our sex, Made for This seeks to challenge, encourage, and equip young women to properly and joyfully discern their vocation in life, and to take their God-given gifts out into the world.'

Registration opens August 1 -
