Tenants in God's Vineyard

In today's Gospel, Jesus speaks of a landowner who plants a vineyard, carefully prepares it, and then entrusts it to tenants. The tragedy is that the tenants begin to act as though the vineyard belongs to them. They forget that they are not the owners, they are stewards.

This parable invites us to look at our own lives. Everything we have ultimately belongs to God. Our time, our talents, our possessions, our families, our work, and even creation itself are gifts entrusted to us. We are not owners in the absolute sense; we are tenants in God's vineyard, called to care for what He has placed into our hands.

A good tenant respects the property of the owner. A good steward asks, "What does the Owner desire of me?" Rather than simply doing whatever we want with what has been given to us, we are called to use God's gifts in ways that honor Him and serve others.

This changes how we see everyday life. We care for creation because it belongs to God. We treat others with dignity because they belong to God. We use our time and resources generously because they are gifts from God. We come to Mass, pray, work, serve, give, forgive, and love with the understanding that our lives are not ultimately our own, they are entrusted to us by the One who created us.

The question for each of us is simple: What kind of tenant am I? When the Owner comes, will He find that I have cared for His vineyard, shared its fruits, and treated His gifts with gratitude and reverence?

May we strive to be faithful tenants, grateful for all God has entrusted to us and always remembering who the Owner truly is.

COME AND REST IN HIS PRESENCE

Take a quiet moment away from the busyness of life and sit with Jesus in the Eucharist.

Bring Him your heart, your burdens, and your prayers.

MUSIC CORNER

Sacred music is inseparable from sacred texts. The Church does not simply need religious lyrics for her music; she gives us the actual words of Scripture and the liturgy to sing. The Psalms, biblical canticles, acclamations, and prayers of the Mass give voice to the faith of the Church, allowing us not only to hear the Word of God but to proclaim it with our own voices. When we sing the words the Church gives us, we are not merely singing about our faith—we are praying the faith of the Church.

There is something really special happening at Our Lady of Fatima. We are so blessed to have a beautiful music ministry that brings so much reverence, warmth, and joy to our parish. That was especially felt during the Our Lady Undoer of Knots Rosary. As the prayers were offered and the music filled the church, there were moments when the choir truly sounded like angels singing—almost like a little glimpse of Heaven. A special shout-out to our Music Director, Joel Cummings. His experience, leadership, and love of sacred music are such a gift to Our Lady of Fatima. You can feel the care he puts into bringing people together and creating music that helps draw us deeper into prayer. We are also so grateful for every singer and musician who shares their gifts so generously. Together, they helped make the Our Lady Undoer of Knots Rosary such a peaceful, beautiful, and moving experience. If you know someone looking for a parish home, invite them to come experience Our Lady of Fatima. Sometimes it is the beauty of prayer, the warmth of the community, or a song that touches your heart that makes you realize you have found a place that feels like home.

Signed,

A Grateful Our Lady of Fatima Parishioner

Funeral Mass for Philip Prince

Please join us in celebrating the life of Philip Prince at his Funeral Mass on Friday, October 9, at 11:00 AM here at Our Lady of Fatima Catholic Church.

Let us keep Philip's family and loved ones in our prayers as we give thanks for his life and entrust him to the loving arms of our Lord, with the joyful hope of the Resurrection.

Please Note: There will be NO 9:00 AM Daily Mass on Friday, October 9. The 9:00 AM Mass will be celebrated in conjunction with the 11:00 AM Funeral Mass. All are welcome to attend.
