Come to the Wedding Feast!

In today's Gospel, Jesus compares the Kingdom of Heaven to a great wedding feast. The invitation is extended to all, yet accepting it calls us to conversion, humility, and a life transformed by God's mercy.

God invites each of us to the Eucharistic banquet, where we encounter Christ and are nourished by His grace. As a parish family, let us respond to His invitation by coming faithfully to Mass, seeking His mercy in Confession, growing in faith, and using our time and talents to serve one another. And, having been fed by Christ, let us invite others to come and discover the joy of life with Him.

The invitation is ours. Will we say YES?

“Blessed are those who are invited to the wedding feast of the Lamb.” — Revelation 19:9

MUSIC CORNER

Why does beauty matter in Catholic worship? Because the liturgy draws us beyond ourselves toward the mystery of God. Sacred music should therefore be more than pleasing or entertaining; it should be worthy of the sacred mysteries we celebrate. As Musicam Sacram teaches, sacred music is most holy when it is closely united to the liturgical action. Beauty in worship does not exist simply to impress us—it can quiet the heart, lift the mind, and help us recognize that we have entered into something greater than ourselves. When sacred music is beautiful in this deeper sense, it becomes a path that leads us toward God.

TO THE PARENTS OF OUR YOUNG CHILDREN, MAY WE SUGGEST...

Relax! God put the wiggle in children, don't feel you have to suppress it in God's house.

All are welcome!

- ✚ Sit toward the front where it is easier for the your little ones to see and hear what's going on at the altar. They tire of seeing the backs of other's heads.
- ✚ Quietly explain the parts of the Mass and actions of the priest, altar servers, choir, etc.
- ✚ Sing the hymns, pray and voice the responses. Children learn liturgical behavior by copying you.
- ✚ If you have to leave Mass with your child, feel free to do so, but please come back. As Jesus said, "Let the children come to me."
- ✚ Remember that the way we welcome children in the church directly affects the way they respond to Church, to God, and to one another. Let them know that they are at home in this house of worship.

TO THE MEMBERS OF OUR PARISH

The presence of children is a gift to the Church and they are a reminder that our parish is growing.
Please welcome our children and give a smile of encouragement to their parents.
