Saint Rose of Lima Catholic Church

Our Parish Mission is... To inspire in each other a longing for holiness, conversion, and an openness to Jesus' call: "Follow Me;" by giving ourselves entirely to Christ through Mary, our Mother, in prayer, the Divine Liturgy, the Eucharist, and His Mercy in the Sacraments.

The Importance of Recognizing the Ordinary

The Catholic liturgical year invites us to grow closer to Christ through its different seasons. While Advent and Lent often stand out, Ordinary Time reminds us that holiness is not found only in special celebrations or moments of sacrifice, but also in the simple routines of everyday life.

As St. Josemaría Escrivá reminds us:
"God is calling you to serve him in and from the ordinary…There is something holy, something divine hidden in the most ordinary situations, and it is up to each one of you to discover it."

Ordinary Time encourages us to develop virtue, strengthen our prayer life, and recognize Christ in our daily experiences. It also challenges us to pay closer attention to the people closest to us, especially our family members. As one priest observed, "Oftentimes we don't really see the people right in front of us." We may show kindness and patience to strangers, coworkers, or acquaintances while struggling to extend that same love to our spouses and children. This inconsistency reflects a lack of authenticity when our outward actions do not match the love we are called to practice in our faith.

Mother Teresa, also known as St. Teresa of Calcutta, emphasized that love and service should begin at home. She taught that before serving those in distant places, we must first recognize and care for those around us. As she reminds us:
"Let us love one another as God loves each of us. And where does this love begin? In your own home."

St. Teresa's words challenge us to treat our families with the same compassion and consideration we offer others. Love should not be reserved for people outside our homes; it should be demonstrated consistently through patience, kindness, and understanding in our everyday relationships.
St. Faustina Kowalska offers another way to live out this calling: remaining united with Jesus throughout the day. In her diary, she describes how she continually seeks Christ's presence and allows Him to work through her in her interactions with others:

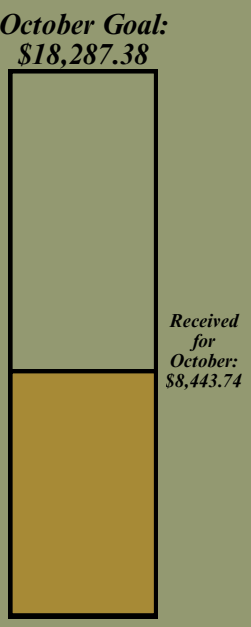

"Although I am in the company of others my heart is always united to Him. When I am asleep I offer Him every beat of my heart, when I am awake I immerse myself in Him without saying a word…I then try to make it easier for Jesus to pass through me to others. I go everywhere with Jesus. His presence accompanies me everywhere."

Her example teaches us that inviting Jesus into our daily activities can transform how we treat those around us. By intentionally offering Him our thoughts, actions, and encounters, we can become more patient, loving, and attentive to the needs of others.

Ultimately, Ordinary Time reminds us that holiness begins in the ordinary moments of life. Through the examples of St. Josemaría Escrivá, St. Teresa of Calcutta, and St. Faustina Kowalska, we are encouraged to seek Christ in our daily routines and relationships. By asking Him to shape our hearts, we can become more compassionate and recognize the struggles and needs of those who are often closest to us. True holiness begins with loving the people God has placed directly in our lives, especially within our own homes.
