PASTOR'S COLUMN

Stewardship Arises from Gratitude

By Fr. Kyle Ratuiste

The launch of this year's Annual Catholic Appeal at the beginning of September prompted me to share a multi-part reflection on stewardship. Whether we are talking about our time, talent, or treasure, stewardship is first about recognizing that everything we have has, in fact, been entrusted to us by God. Therefore, with humble gratitude, we seek to make a return to the Lord. I want to share some significant points of gratitude and offer some timely ways to practice our response of stewardship.

First, we all must thank God for protecting our campus during the August fires. When workmen recently investigated the cause of water damage over one of our school hallways, they noticed the effects of hot embers falling on the roof. One especially large ember had even burned its way into the insulation! Yet the damage went no further. Praise God!

Second, there is ample evidence of the Lord calling people to receive His life through our parish. I counted 11 participants at our Adult Faith Formation / OCIA class this past Sunday. This is well over double our typical attendance of past years! Meanwhile, I've found myself exceptionally busy in helping parish families get their children baptized. Life, both natural and spiritual, is burgeoning at St. Charles Borromeo. Praise God!

How can we make a return to the Lord with our time, talent, and treasure?

Regarding time, I encourage you to block out your calendar for our annual parish fall clean up, taking place on Saturday, November 14 from 9:00 a.m. to 12 noon.

For talent, I direct your attention again to the "Time and Talent Stewardship Survey" I shared a couple weeks back. I enjoyed reading the responses, and they have already proved useful to me in helping direct parishioners to ways they can make a difference. If you haven't completed this quick survey, I invite you to do so. https://forms.gle/jkTJ3gxoEXNJTcgR9 (link is available on Flocknote)

For treasure, I want to highlight the ACA. Thank you to those who have already generously contributed! With a little over a quarter of the parish participating, we are just shy of 80% to our goal of $69,680. If you have yet to contribute or pledge, please take some time to make a gift to the ACA, however small.

I am grateful for you, as we praise God for His goodness and seek to give our whole selves back to Him.
