PASTOR'S COLUMN

About our Patron, Saint Charles Borromeo

This is a packed week for Catholics. The universal Church celebrates All Saints Day on November 1st and All Souls Day on November 2nd. Catholics in the U.S. mark the first full week of November as National Vocation Awareness Week. November 6th is the anniversary of the first Holy Mass being celebrated in what would become the territory of our diocese in 1838. However, I want to pay special attention to our patron, St. Charles Borromeo, whose feast we celebrate on November 4th.

On a practical note, I invite the whole parish to come to a specially scheduled evening Mass to celebrate our patronal feast day on Nov. 4 at 5:00 p.m. This will replace the normally scheduled Adoration and Confession time and is in addition to the normal 8:00 a.m. Mass.

Cardinal Archbishop Charles Borromeo lived in the 16th century and was a crucial figure in the authentic reform of the Catholic Church in response to the Protestant Reformation. His personal holiness and administrative skill gave him the moral authority and practical competence to bring lasting renewal to the Church. He was instrumental in bringing the Council of Trent to a successful conclusion and implementing the Council's reforms in his archdiocese of Milan.

He was also a good friend and an attentive pastor. He fostered relationships that kept the mission of Christ at the forefront, maintaining friendships with the likes of St. Philip Neri. In a time when bishops did not normally live in their dioceses, he decidedly made himself present to his people, regularly making visitations to the far-flung corners of his archdiocese.

His insistence on living a life that practically reflects the truths of our Faith makes him an apt example and intercessor for priests, religious, and laity alike. I initially composed the prayer below to be memorized by our students and teachers. Perhaps you may want to use it yourself.

St. Charles Borromeo, with great humility, holiness, and skill, you labored for the renewal of your diocese and the Catholic Church.
We want to follow your example of discipline, piety, and zeal for souls.
Please pray for us to embrace God's truth and be inflamed by divine love,
Living as faithful disciples of Jesus, may we show His face to the world.
St. Charles Borromeo, pray for us!
Live, Jesus, in our hearts, forever!
