Parish Reception for

Lynn Yew Evers

Please join us after the 10 am liturgy this Sunday, November 15th, to say good-bye to Lynn Yew Evers.

Lynn has served our parish for 16+ years, primarily as the Sunday accompanist, yet also filling in as needed for Saturday's music group and assembly as well.

Her musicality has enriched our parish, infusing our liturgical music with joy, hope, faith — masterfully communicating the heart of the music from her spirit through her command of the piano.

Over the span of Lynn's 16+ years at our parish, she has worked with all of us in a collaborative and supportive manner. She is a friend to many of us, and will always be a part of our musical family here at Sacred Heart Parish!

For those who want to learn more about Lynn, please visit lynnyeweers.com.

We will miss you, Lynn! May God bless you wherever your musical adventures will take you!

Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

The Church gives us this whole month to remember those who have died, and this Sunday's readings fit it well.

In the Gospel, a master trusts his servants with his wealth and goes away. When he comes back, he isn't looking for perfection. He wants to see what they did with what they were given. To the faithful ones he says the words every one of us hopes to hear: "Well done, my good and faithful servant… Come, share your master's joy."

Think of the people we're remembering this month. A grandmother whose hands, like the woman in Proverbs, were always busy and always "open to the poor." A father who worked hard and often came home tired and shouldered many burdens. A friend who could make anyone laugh.

We have a tradition at Sacred Heart to place the names of those who have died and had their funerals here during the past year on banners that we keep in the sanctuary during November. I admit wholeheartedly that I would never have thought my brother's name would be there this year. And yet it is.

Some of the best ways to honor our deceased family and friends is to thank God for them, continue to hold them in prayer, visit their grave, or tell a story about them at the dinner table.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

Fr. Vic
